Be Sunsmart

A reminder to students to bring their hat every day during Term 4

Newsletter No. 39

11th December 2013

From The Assistant Principal..........

Hello Everyone and Welcome to Week 10, Term 4

At this time of the year there are always lots of exciting events happening at Kilmore Primary School and this year is no exception. Next week students and teachers will celebrate the year with their end of year excursions. This is always a highlight for the students and I know they will enjoy the exciting day that has been planned for them.

Special Morning Tea

Parent & Community Helpers are invited to a special Morning Tea on Tuesday 17th December at 10.30 am in the Stadium Foyer. This is a way for the staff at KPS to show our appreciation for the support you give us throughout the year.

Graduation Ceremony

On Tuesday 17th December our Grade 6 students will participate in their Graduation Ceremony – a very significant event in their lives as they leave Primary School and head to Secondary School. We wish them all the best and encourage them to pursue their dreams.

2014 Stationery Packs

Orders will only be placed for families that have returned the Stationery Pack form with payment to the office by Wednesday, 11 December 2013.
School Picnic
Thursday 19th December 2014 is our annual School Picnic. Our wonderful School Council will be putting on a tasty BBQ so come along and enjoy a sausage, good company and excellent singing by our students. This is a fantastic community event to finish off the year.

School Assembly
There will be no whole school assembly this Friday. We will however be having a final school assembly on the last day of term at 1.45 pm before school concludes for the year at 2.30 pm.

I will be on long service leave next week so would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very happy and safe Christmas and a relaxing New Year. I look forward to working with you all again in 2014.

Jennene Cooney
Assistant Principal

Grade 6 JUMPER
Order Form 2014

Orders MUST be placed by 28th February 2014

The KPS Grade 6 Jumper will have the School Embroidery on the front and the Grade 6 screenprint on the back

IMPORTANT—All Things Uniform, Shop 1/70 High Street Broadford are accepting forms and payment direct. Please DO NOT send any forms or money to the office.

All Things Uniform will be closed for the Christmas break from 12.00 noon 20th December & reopen on 8th January at 9.00 am.
Due By Dates

Please note the importance of adhering to the due by dates for permission notes and payments. While we do not wish your child to miss an incursion/excursion, late payments make the task of organising events very difficult. We ask for parents to respect due by dates to help make this a more streamlined process for the admin and teaching staff.

Thank you for your cooperation

Student Banking

School Banking Day is Tuesday, bring your deposit books to the office.

Dear Parents,

Please note changes to School Banking in 2014

Reward Ordering 2014:

Due to a change in the admin and tracking of weekly deposits in 2014, tokens can no longer be carried forward to 2014.

The change will ensure a more streamline process for the School Banking Coordinator and less confusion over redemption of awards.

More information regarding the changes will be provided in the coming weeks.

Thank you for your support

Teach your kids to SHRUG!

The secret to having resilient, confident and optimistic children is to teach your kids to shrug!

It was so irritating, yet so effective.

I’m talking about my boyhood mate Terry’s habit of shrugging his shoulders whenever anyone teased him or tried to persuade him to their way of thinking.

‘Hey Terry, you’re a &@&E@01!’

Shrug.

‘Hey Terry, everyone says your........*&TR!’

Shrug.

‘Hey Terry, I’m going to tell on you!’

Shrug.

His nonchalance used to drive everyone nuts!

So much so that he was rarely targeted for teasing despite the fact that he wasn’t sporty, he wasn’t cool and he was late maturing – all of which back then, as now, would put a boy in the ‘to be picked on’ category.

I thought of Terry recently when I was coaching a young person about how to respond to some schoolyard taunts.

This young person wore his heart on his sleeve, taking taunts and even witticisms too seriously for his own good. Unfortunately, some of his so-called mates used to enjoy seeing him become angry.

The best way to break this toxic cycle of taunt-react-taunt was for him to change his reaction.

So we did some coaching in the art of shrugging and before long my young charge was shrugging his shoulders, as if to say ‘Whatever’, and walking away at the first sign of a taunt.

Eventually he was channelling Terry so well that his nonchalance even began to irritate me.

Some things can’t be ignored

Don’t get me wrong. Kids cannot and should not ignore all negative comments directed at them.

There are times when they need to stand up and be counted. They don’t need to be aggressive about it, but they do need to be assertive from time to time. Sticking up for a friend, rescuing someone who is being taunted or even looking out for a sibling’s best interests at school are times when children need to assert themselves rather than shrugging off a problem.

Kids practise on their siblings

Socially savvy kids know that some of the negative peer comments directed at them need to be ignored. However, this is quite a skill.

Ignoring comments and choosing your arguments is something many kids learn in their battles with siblings.

Those noisy sibling skirmishes that annoy the hell out of parents actually toughen kids up for the less-than-pleasant social interactions that take place in the schoolyard.

Interestingly, my boyhood mate Terry was the youngest of
